

Past President's Dinner – 12th October 2023

Sixteen former President's of DDLS and the current President, Oliver Maxwell, enjoyed a fantastic meal and catch up at the Kedleston Country House Hotel on 12th October.

It is always a very enjoyable evening with a chance to exchange news, gossip and get travel tips from our resident Judith Chalmers aka Di Copestake ! We were also able to raise a glass to our dear recently departed friend, Quentin Robbins, who was President of DDLS 2007/08 and was always central to this social occasion.

Thank you to all those who attended and to any past president's who weren't able to attend it appears that there is such appetite for this particular dinner that it will be moving to become an annual event!
