

DDLs Annual Quiz 23rd January 2020 Sponsored by Severn Trent Searches

After the floods of November it was a huge relief that the weather forecast for the week of the Quiz was relatively fair. No floods and no snow.

The re-arranged date was again almost a sell out – with the Quiz remaining a popular annual event even though Peter Ball was amongst the quiz goers this year. Huge thanks to Sue Woodall and her team of quiz setters – Marion, master of the spreadsheet and Steve – quizmaster extraordinaire.

The night was won by WOW from Wykes O'Donnell Williams. A team made up of Claire O'Donnell, David Williams, Brian Woodall and Kevin O'Donnell. They were hotly pursued by Peter's team "The Ex-Factor".

Well done to everyone who took part – I was glad to be collecting answer sheets and not trying to answer the questions. I hope you all had an entertaining evening.

The team sheet is below so you can see where your team/ firm finished.

Thank you to the generous support of our sponsor for the night Severn Trent Searches.
