About the Speakers

Elizabeth Archer, Principal Policy Adviser, Information Commissioner's Office

Elizabeth has worked in information rights at the ICO since 2006. Her work focuses on data protection and as a Principal Policy Adviser at the ICO, she is responsible for leading on and developing strategy and policy products in specific areas. Elizabeth works in the Assurance department which includes teams working on audits, guidance, codes of conduct and certification under the GDPR and the 'Sandbox'. Elizabeth was the policy lead responsible for the development of the ICO's beta Accountability Framework which launched earlier this year. This is a practical tool to help organisations consider their data protection compliance and how to demonstrate it.

Nick Hanning, Consultant, DG Legal

Nick has a wealth of legal practice, practice management and regulatory experience. He is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Legal Executives (CILEx) and served as CILEx President in 2012-13. He has developed expertise in Data Protection Law. He is a Data Protection Officer and regularly advises DG Legal's retainer clients and others about the GDPR and Data Protection Act issues.

Matt Howgate, Consultant, DG Legal

Matt is a non-practising solicitor and was formerly Senior Legal Adviser and Head of Continuous Improvement at the Legal Services Commission. He has considerable experience in regulatory issues and advising on complex issues of compliance and ethics. He is also an expert in data protection, GDPR and on the civil legal aid scheme.

David Gilmore, Director & Founder, DG Legal

David has provided advice and assistance to hundreds of law firms and other legal organisations. He delivers specialist consultancy and training on a wide range of topics including business management & strategy, tendering, compliance and quality assurance.
